Attacked by a Snake.

John Hanna, a market man, while colfecting produce last Thursday had an encounter with a farge black snake. His first attention was called to some His first necession was cased to some thing endeavoring to send its fangs through his pantaloons below the knee. Or looking down he saw an immense black snake about to spring upon him. He kept his presence of mind, and de-taching the firm grip of the reptile finally dispatched in.

After Twenty Years.

Mr. Jones has not been a visitor for twenty years at the Grove. He has charge of a pastorate in Virginia, but met with a serious acci-dent that has disabled him for a time. Hie friends wish him many years of usefulness in his Master's vineyard.

A Costly Storm.

On last Friday afternoon a terrible storm swept over the vicinity of Sarahstorm swept over the vicinity of saran-ville, in Noble county, Ohlo, accom-panied by heavy hall, largely destroy-ing the tobacco crops. Some farmers loot as high as $500. Streams were flooded and crops-destroyed. It was also accompanied by lightings, setting fire to haystacks, and over one-half of the wheat is spoified. The wheat is growing in the stacks.

The Sunday Park Concret.
The concert by the Opera House band The concert by the Opera House band at Wheeling Park Sunday afternoon was heard by 1,500 people. The band was never in finer fettle, and as the programme was exceptionally promising the many strangers present were more than pleased. A feature of the afternoon's entertainment was the singing of Mr. Charles Zulauf, who rendered two numbers in fine voice. His efforts were so well appreciated that he was compelled to respond to the unanimous demand for a repetition. This is an innovation that the park management would do well to repeat. In this connection it would not be out of place to remind the public that by special request the Opera House band will repeat the Sommermachisfest it gave some weeks ago on the evening of August 21.

THE WORK OF ARRANGEMENTS

FOR THE ENTERTAINMENT OF THE VISITORS ON THE OCCA-BION OF THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THEOHIO VALLEY IMPROVE-MENT ASSOCIATION-THE IM-PORTANCE OF THE MEETING TO WHEELING IS LARGE-MER-CHANTS' EXCURSIONS.

This evening there will be a meeting of the executive committee in charge of arrangements for the approaching an-nual meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association. The meeting will be held at the chamber of commerce and it is important that all members be in attendance.

Perhaps the most important business to be transacted is the naming of the several sub-committees that will directly perform the work of arrangement including committees on finance, entertainment and invitation.

It is earnestly hoped and believed that there will be entire harmony and plenty of enthusiasm on the part of the business people of the city in taking hold of this prooject. The meeting is by far ness people of the city in taking ions of this prooject. The meeting is by far the most important that has been secured for Wheeling in many years, and the recent suggestion by Mr. Peterson for a campaign of education in advocacy of a dam and locks below this port in advance of the general plan now being followed by the government engineers in charge of th improvements on the upper river, enlarges, accentuates and brings home this importance. The Intelligencer, which first suggested that the chamber of commerce make the endeavor to secure for Wheeling the '88 meeting of the improvement association, hopes the business community will take the degree of interest in the approaching meeting which it demands. And aside from the selfish motive of self-interest, the meeting will be made up of the representative business men of the entire Ohio Valley, from Pittsburgh to Calro, whose visit and entertailment at Wheeling cannot but prove of profit to Wheeling and her people, both materially and sentimentally.

Wheeling and her people, both materially and sentimentally.

The Intelligencer recently called attention to the fact that Wheeling's commercial rivals are bestirring themselves these days by running merchants' excursions at reduced rates. Perhaps this plan results in more real good to business than the celebration of "Merchants' Day," and the chamber of commerce of Wheeling would be getting into line with other progressive jobbing cities by offering similar inducements to its patrons. Cleveland is to offer this inducement to its friends this month, and the Leader says of its workings:

Merchants' excursions to Cleveland will take place under the auspices of the wholesale merchants' board of the chamber of commerce, between August 22 and September 6. Reduced rates, one and one-third fares on the certificate plan, have been secured from all points within Ohio and Indhana, and those parts of Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York and the province of Ontario within the jurisdiction of the Central Passenger Association. Tickets will be good coming only or August 22 to August 23, and returning only from August 25 to September 6. Reduced rates as given will apply to all members of a firm and its buyers, together with their families, excepting children, who ride at half fare. All who desire to come and return on the same day should come only on August 25, 26 or 27. In the three excursions last year almost in Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Indiana and Michigan visited Cieveland. This number does not include the families of business men who accompanied them.
